

La réalité virtuelle pour l'apprentissage des langues : l'influence de l'immersion, de additionally investigates speaking in the foreign language, language usage strategies, interactivity, physical engagement and how to support the pupils during immersion. Finally, it points out both the drawbacks and opportunities of using virtual reality as a digital environment for language learning.

Keywords: virtual reality, presence, immersion, interaction, foreign language, German, French, language usage strategies